

Raft Survival Campout – “The Last Hurrah”

WHAT TO BRING?

Wear on Departure for Raft Trek

- Whistle (NON-OPTIONAL)
- Activity Uniform – Troop T Shirt, Scout shorts or scout-like bathing suit
- Closed-toed Water Shoes or Closed-Toed Sandals

Survival Kit (1 gallon Troop-supplied container – closed)

- Knife(s) or multi-tool
- Folding saw
- Rope (see video on how to make a hammock out of your sheet if you like)
- Duct tape
- Camp Cup (or use foil to drink water)
- Emergency blanket
- Fire-starter materials (no matches or lighters) – Flint & Steele, 9v Battery w/ steel wool, cotton balls dipped in vasoline.
- Aluminum foil (heavy duty for cooking)
- Fishing gear – Line, Hooks, Bait
- Flashlight
- Extra batteries
- Up to 6 oz. Food – Only type allowed is dried food requiring adding hot water to hydrate. Ideas include:
 - Dehydrated Meal
 - Bullion Cubes
 - Soup Mix
 - Hot Chocolate Mix
- Large trash bags
- First aid items
 - Neosporin
 - Band-aids
 - Alcohol wipes
- Less Important Ideas
 - Personal Insect Repellant (the Troop has some to share also)
 - Salt & Pepper & Spices, oil (for seasoning fish & other stuff)
 - Blow-up Pillow or good zip-lock bag to make your own
 - Net Hammock (or make your own with your sheet and some good rope)

NOTE: These were suggestions, bring anything else within the guidelines.

Dry-Bag or Garbage Bag (outside of 1-Gallon Container)

- One Bed Sheet (may be used to make hammock if desired – see video on website)
- Extra set of clothes
 - T-Shirt (Troop if possible)
 - Long Pants (helps with bugs at night)
 - Socks/underwear
 - Shoes (separate from closed-toed water shoes or closed-toed sandals worn on departure)
 - Jacket (for warmth & bug protection)